

THE EPISCOPAL CAMPUS MINISTRY AT UCSB
STANDING COMMITTEE FOR CAMPUS MINISTRY PRESENTS:

An Evening of Delectable Desserts!

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2010 AT 7:00 P.M.

What

An enchanting evening as you savor an amazing selection of fine desserts, including dessert cheeses, along with the sounds of beautiful live music.

Why

A benefit to celebrate Episcopal Campus Ministry at UCSB. Support Christian outreach and care for our local college community and encourage a critical ministry that has a direct impact on the future of the church and the world.

When

Saturday,
September 18, 2010
at 7:00 p.m.

Where

The home of Terry
and Clark Roof,
116 E. Mission Street
Santa Barbara

Cost

Suggested donation of $25 per person

Space is limited, so reserve now by calling (805) 687-3327 or emailing tproof@verizon.net.

Join us in this fun evening as we celebrate St. Michael's University Church!

Left: SCCM and Trinity member Douglas Clegg accompanies a young accordion player at openMike's.

Right: Progressive Christians @ UCSB meet weekly in the Little House for a home cooked meal provided by area congregations and conversation about life and faith.

openMIKE'S* MAKES SPRING QUARTER DEBUT

Thanks to the initiative of new Standing Committee on Campus Ministry member Douglas Clegg and his partner musician Kate Wallace, Isla Vista now has a venue where you can come to hear some great music and be heard. It's called openMikes – a monthly open mic for players and poets, writers and musicians on the first Friday of each month. openMike's kicked off the first Friday of Spring Quarter with featured performer Annie Dalgren. Artists Peter Galloway, Annie Gallup (Hat Check Girl) and Caren Armstrong have also graced the chapel stage with their original compositions. Join us through the summer on the first Friday of the month for an impressive array of local talent!

A LITANY OF FAREWELL

All of you gathered here to celebrate the graduation of these students,
I bid you now pray in thanksgiving for the Creator's presence among us.

In this world: The Holy One is present.

In this College: The Holy One is present.

In this Class: The Holy One is present.

In all of us gathered: The Holy One is present.

But especially, I bid you now pray for the Class of 2010, as they prepare to leave this place.

For expectations not met: O Merciful One, have mercy

For wounds not healed: O Merciful One, have mercy

For gifts not given: O Merciful One, have mercy

For promises not met: O Merciful One, have mercy

For lessons not learned: O Merciful One, have mercy

And for the part of your life's pilgrimage made with these people in this place:

Thanks be to the Giver.

For friendships made, celebrations enjoyed, and for moments of nurture:

Thanks be to the Giver.

For wounds healed, expectations met, gifts given, promises kept: Thanks be to the Giver.

For lessons learned, experience gained, wisdom won: Thanks be to the Giver.

For thoughtful little kindnesses done that made these moments better for others:

Thanks be to the Giver.

And so to establish a home in a new place with other members of God's diverse family:

Go in peace.

To continue the journey with new friends and new adventures, new gifts to give and receive: Go in peace.

To offer wisdom and experience, competence and compassion, in the vocation to which you are called: Go in peace.

With whatever fears, whatever sadness, whatever excitement and anticipation may be yours: Go in peace.

With our faith in you, our hope for you, and our love of you:

Go in peace.

Amen.

Top left to right: Bishop Bruno's visit to St. Mike's winter quarter included a blessing of the Community Garden. Students, faculty, staff and community members gathered together for Bishop Bruno's homecoming to St. Mike's.

Above: Members of the weekly on campus Queer Bible Study sponsored by Progressive Christians with Karen Steward, UCC lay minister.